ALLY ONE said, "I told him the surveyor was coming and asked him to decide whether to stay or go." She asked the question. Ally told him that the surveyor told him that he had been definitely decided that he was staying. Ally said that the boy was entirely in Texas and the boy shouted "enough for me!" and Ally shouted "enough for everyone around the state line!" No one heard of those horrible things.

"I'm sure glad you're all out of those horrible things this winter."

And just to wind things up, here are a few short delightful little tales.

Bandera School Aids Funds Cut By State

Bandera's public schools suffered a serious blow this week when it was discovered that they were to receive only one-half of the 1945-46 school year. The loss in money received was $150 or per cent of the regular meeting of the Bandera PTA, Tuesday, January 24.

Members of the Bandera School Board, who met at the regular meeting of the PTA, Tuesday, January 24, were informed that the state would not be making any contribution to the schools for the coming year. The board members were informed that the state would not be making any contribution to the schools for the coming year.

Every teacher, taxpayer and friend of the school system stood in protest at a meeting of the PTA, Tuesday, January 24, when the news was made known. The PTA will meet with the school board Friday afternoon at 3 p. m. to discuss the situation.

It was known that the school board would appear before Judge A. V. Pader and ask for a writ of mandamus to compel the state to pay the school for the coming year. The school board will also ask for a writ of mandamus to compel the state to pay the school for the coming year.

Thank You

May we take this means of expressing our most sincere appreciation and thanks to everyone who made the Banquet and Radio Broadcast last Monday night a success.

The problem of preparing for 300 people, providing entertainment, co-ordinating the activities of the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company, the Del Rio and Winter Garden Telephone Company and Radio Station WOAI, keeping lines open to the News Room in the Radio Station in order that last minute news might be available, selling the tickets, providing the decorations and the countless other details that are part and parcel of such an event, were accomplished by the unselfish assistance of a great many people.

The affair was a success. A large sum of money was raised for the Bandera Recreation Center. And the Credit belongs to all who made the event possible and earned the enduring thanks of the entire community.

Overstocked Range Endangering Stock

Feed Supplies Small

Overstocked ranges and short feed supplies are endangering the Texas livestock industry. H. P. Vahon, state director of the Texas Animal Industry Commission, is urging that cattle marketing be stepped up.

"A single drought," he says, "weather for the worse might result in tremendous losses of livestock." Vahon declared, "It is highly important that some sort of cattle buy on the range and on feed be cut considerably in order to keep the cattle's feed supply in balance."

In addition, the PMA official said, delayed marketing might result in congestion and possibility of marketing facilities later on. In order to avoid such congestion, producers should contact their marketing agents before shipping cattle to make sure the market can handle them.

Demand for meat is high, Vahon said, and it is important that livestock move to market in an orderly manner but fast enough to keep packing plants operating at capacity.

THEIR SPIRIT LIVES ON

Nothing in the history of democracy has gone further to justify belief in the capacity of the common people for self government than the fact that Lincoln's great heart and brain sprung from poor, unlettered ancestry and were nourished in the sterile soil of backwood's life.

Washington in contrast was born an aristocrat. This fact in no way interfered with his usefulness to his country. Suffering the same miseries of his soldiers at Valley Forge and intrigues to have him superseded, he nevertheless drove thru his task to a successful conclusion and thereby lay the foundations upon which this nation has been built.

Could these two great Americans observe the amazing progress achieved in the years just past in the face of world wide conflicts, it is within the bounds of possibility that they would pay tribute to the skilled hands and minds that have produced the greatest nation on the face of the earth.

As we honor the memory of Lincoln and Washington meditating on the fact that their lives are a living example of true democracy—one born an aristocrat and the other from poor unlettered ancestry—we again hear their wise counsel for the conduct of our national affairs.

Their words of wise caution warn us to be on guard and alert against the actions of unscrupulous groups of individuals who would bind the nation and its industrious people with bonds of slavery....

These two great Americans have bequeathed a splendid heritage... A heritage of the value and power of simplicity, honor and courage for the greater strength of our democracy.

In the words of our day, they were "square shooters." Showing by example what can be accomplished by honest, straight thinking of real people who live and work in every community of the United States of America.

Yes, their spirit and inspired deeds and words live on in the hearts of their countrymen... And we here in this community will continue to honor the memory of Washington and Lincoln by seeking to put their ideals into the work of the Present.

Yes, we are glad to pay tribute to these two great Americans!

"Easy does it"

Yes, "easy does it" when loading, unloading or handling livestock.

Broken-crying and death losses cost American stockmen 12 million dollars each year—equivalent to the value of a single day of market hog stretching all the way from St. Louis to Chicago.

And the producers do pay those losses: directly through their own excessive dirt and mud on their loading and unloading practices... indirectly through higher prices for their livestock.

But you can't pay for lost livestock. You can't pay for lost profits. You can't pay for lost time. You can't pay for lost peace of mind.

So, that's why we suggest "easy does it"—and that you use the "easy does it" method when loading and unloading livestock.

(1) Never beat animals with whips or clubs. Use canvas slings or electric prods. (2) Forget dusts, trucks and cars for milks, rollers, etc. (3) Furnish good footing, bed properly. For hogs, cover dry sand with straw for winter shipping; use or unloading chutes with straw. (4) Do not overfeed. Portion must be given. (5) Do not overwork. Avoid sudden starts and stops. Check your load frequently for crowding.

We'll be glad to mail you our instructive Agricultural Research Bulletin No. 20, "Preventing Losses in Handling Livestock." Address request to Department H-1, Swift & Company, Chicago 9, Ill.

KEEP EWES WITH GOOD FLEECES

Use 1 1/2 bushels of Woolsaver.

Before shearing time, range flock owners should be carefully examined and the ones with poor fleeces marked for culling later. Experience in wading in the water with sheep has shown that 30 to 35 per cent of range sheep can be obtained by the systematic selection of range ewes.

One livestock man reports that the average weight of fleeces from his flock, of about 40,000 head, had increased nearly 3 pounds during the past ten years of systematic culling in connection with the use of Woolsaver. He got better fleeces, too. Others report similar results obtained by searching out and discarding the ewes which are below standard in wool production.

With today's high costs, any range ewe which does not shear a big fleece of first-class wool is a money loser. By a systematic examination, any flock owner can find the ewes which are below standard in wool production. The flock owner can find the ewes which are below standard in wool production. ## YOU RAISE 'EM—HE SELLS 'EM

It is a fact—on an average of over 1,000 acres in the Western range to every 100 acres, there is one sheep raiser. The sheep raiser is the man who produces the meat that feeds the nation. He is the man who produces the meat that feeds the nation. He is the man who produces the meat that feeds the nation.

Voters To Decide $22,000 Water Bond Issue July 27

City Patrol To Stage Show Sunday at Mainman's

Voters of Bandera will be given the opportunity of voting July 27, on a bond issue for $22,000 to improve the local water system. It is estimated, secretary of the Board said, that the money will be used for the betterment of the water supply.

The amount agreed by the board was for the cost of drilling a well that will produce 500 gallons of water a minute, and adding extensions to the area now served by the local organization. Last Friday night the water board heard from their attorney, engineers and drillers on the proposed plan. Before the bond issue can be placed, it will be necessary for the voters of the water district to approve it. The attorney for the board prepared a legal notice for publication but complications forced it to be withheld until next week.

recently became part of the food and drug law.
The new regulation states that the use of mineral oil as an ingredient in food is hereby prohibited.
Any food product containing mineral oil as an ingredient will be considered adulterated under the Texas food and drug law re-

Texas T. B. Deaths Drop, But Rate Is Above U. S. Average

Austin, June 18.—For the first time since 1914, Texas deaths from tuberculosis have dropped below 3000, according to Dr. Howard E. Smith, tuberculosis division director of the state health department.

Notwithstanding the decrease in the number of deaths, the state health rate of 43.1 per 100,000 people is still above the national average of 38.7, he said today.

Dr. Smith attributed the decrease to an improvement in economic conditions during the war, and more effort directed at early cases, and more cases.

History Reveals

The Alcohol Tax Unit has been designated as the national agency for violations of the National Firearms Act.

Thousands of firearms which come within the meaning of the National Firearms Act are being brought into the country.

Under high altitude flying conditions, where the oxygen pressure is reduced, persons of more than 40 years of age are able to perform as well as younger men in their twenties.

FARM Motel

By H. P. SCHLIMMER
County Agent

We have just received a sample of Formosa 1238, a new DDT insect spray or dip, which was developed by the Texas Bureau of Entomology. This insecticide has been used in this county, but reports received from other counties are good. Formosa 1238 is an open formula, developed by the Bureau and can be made up by anyone. The ingredients are shown on the label.

It is our opinion that this formula will be a big help to the grower. It is slightly more expensive than the other kind, but it should be especially helpful for the grower at the time of the outbreak of the DDT.

COUNTY FAIR
We attended a meeting Tuesday night in Austin to discuss the possibility of holding a county fair this fall in Bandera. The folks up there are ready to cooperate and will work toward getting a community exhibit prepared. Mr. J. A. Hootch, secretary of the Bandera Chamber of Commerce, was elected secretary. The chairman from each of Bandera and dog trails will be held. All this will be at the above barn. The results will be turned over to the Extension Service where it had Warren and Thomas Hootch take their goats to this show. Other shows that we expect to attend are the official Angus breeders' association show at Fredericksburg on August 1st and 2nd and the Texas State Fair and show at Austin on August 24th and 25th.

From my old scrap book, here's a favorite poem, "The Old Man In The Field," by John H. Tates.
I found the model I made me think of good old times before my hair was gray. The heathen house was filled up with old men, when I was a boy. It wasn't built for show, but the best didn't seat me away back by the door. He knew that I was old and deaf, and I with you'd heard the songs; I had the old-time ring; The preacher said, with trumpet voice, "Let all the people sing!" My deafness seemed to melt away; my spirit caught the fire. I joined my feeble trembling voice with that melodious choir. Let angels praise thee, Lord, bring forth the royal diadem and crown thee Lord of all!" The preacher? Well, I can't tell all that the preacher said. I know it wasn't read. He hadn't time to read it for the lightness of his voice. "I'm glad," long from now, I've passed a stony day.

Allan Shivers Asks For Support For Lieutenant Governor

Senator Allan Shivers, leading candidate for lieutenant governor, is seeking election to that office on the basis of his qualifications of wide training and experience.

In every way, Allan Shivers, legislator, farmer, and World War II combat veteran, is exceptionally qualified for the job.

Shivers, a war veteran of two years overseas, during which time he earned 5 battle stars, did not make to this free country for a free people. He will continue that course as lieutenant governor.

He has conducted a dignified campaign, free of mudslinging and personalities. His platform appeals to every Texan. Better farm-to-market roads, better salaries for school teachers, a large public health program, a thorough public safety facility, reorganization of the state for legislative purposes, greater aid to the aged, real assistance to war veterans, reorganization of the pardon and parole system, a first class university for the colored, an equal responsibility from both sides and reorganization. He is against a sales, state income or any other form of new taxes.

Trades Day Draws Large Crowd Here Wednesday

Bandera's first Trades Day drew a large crowd to Mansfield Park Wednesday, and a large number of breeders were on hand to display, trade or sell their stock.

Equipment dealers displayed their latest labor saving devices, and many ranches offered surplus machinery for sale.

Several private treaty sales were completed before the auction started at 2 p. m. Highlight of the auction was the purchase of a fine registered, blood type Angus yearling, bred by the First National Bank from M. B. Pickett of Turley, Tex., $1000.

Later on in the day, Howard Woodward offered a magnificent ram to the Legion and it brought $125 being sold to Earl Deschamps.

Ladies of the Home Demonstration Council prepared a delicious luncheon for the ladies present.

The trades day functions went off in fairly smooth fashion, especially for the first such performance. The committee in charge felt that their efforts had been worth while and have hopes of repeating the event regularly.

By applying their experience they got a lot of Wednesday's Trade Day, they can expedite the activities and increase their effectiveness for both breeder and rancher.

Discontinuation Seen For Bandera-Hondo Bus Because of Roads

Unless road improvements are made rapidly, the Bandera-Hondo and Devine bus lines will be discontinued, it was learned Tuesday.

Bandera County Commissioner, J. W. Evans, said that the Bandera to Hondo road has become nearly impassable. During the last 3,000 miles of operation, the bus has been the service inaugurated June 1, one complete set of rags and, six ply tires have been completely worn out.

Motion Picture Unit Visits Bandera For Third Time In Month

Bandera County has the motion picture unit for the third time in less than a month this week, when Jimmy Lederer, ex-cameraman of Universal, recently completed a story on Harry Steelman, local youth.

Several weeks ago Lederer completed a Duke Dalton short at a local ranch, then followed up with a feature story on a country doctor, using the New Era as a locale, and yesterday shot the last scene on Steelman.

The last story, graphically tells how Harry Steelman lost his right leg in the Pipe Creek trail, and how he recovered. Lederer's story tells graphically in pictures the courage of a youth who, after losing a leg, managed to still live as a normal life.

Reveries, which were shot at Circle-J Ranch, showed Harry riding a horse, and a scene of him sitting in front of the O. B. T. Club, and a scene of him sitting in front of the O. B. T. Club.

The New Era is the beneficiary of the release of the pictures, and the pictures are being made for a release showing at the Bandera Theatre by J. C. Webb.

Spent your vacation in the beautiful Bandera Hills. Visit Circle B Court Ranch and KERR WATER SUPPLY LOW. The unusual dry weather has forced the City of Kerrville to issue drastic restrictive orders on the use of water in that community. In order to conserve water pressure in the event of a fire alarm, all residents of the town have been asked to turn off all water hydrants at the sound of the fire siren and keep them off until the all clear signal is given.

We're Open

Although all our equipment has not been put into service we have decided to open our Service Station so that the residents of Bandera County might once again get good Humble Gasoline and 997 Motor Oils.

In a very few weeks we'll have everything ready to operate, and we believe you'll agree with us that the B and A Humble Service Station will be the most modern in the entire Hill Country.

Bob Wills Playboys Play Sunday-Monday At The Jersey Lilly

BOB WILLS
An American success story that began in the heart of Texas is that of Bob Wills, handsome, genial leader of the nation's No. 1 Western music aggregation. Known as "Bob Wills and his Texas Playboys," this phenomenal dancing band, which recently toured Harry James in attendance, is coming to the Jersey Lilly for a two-day engagement Sunday and Monday, August 25-26.

Bob Wills and his Texas Playboys have been playing in Hill Country, West Texas, for many years. In 1935, they were the first to play in the Hill Country. They have since played in many other places, including the Jersey Lilly. They are known for their "Texas Style" music, which is a blend of Western and Swing music. They have a large following of fans, and their performances are always a hit. They are coming to the Jersey Lilly for a two-day engagement, and it is expected that they will be a big success.
